COMMENTS: Candidate faxed in waiver request and states that he was unaware that he was late with any reports. He was under the impression that he had someone filing the reports for him. He states that after the election he had a family emergency that required him to move and for that reason he did not receive any delinquent notices. Once he received correspondence he contacted our office to resolve the situation and he is now up to date with all his filings.

DEAR MS. HORN,

I have received your letter for the assessment of late fees. First, I would like to apologize for this delay in filing. I was unaware that I was late with any reports. This was my first time running for office. I was under the impression that I had someone filing these reports for me. After the election in 2019, I had a family emergency that required me to move. For this reason, I did not receive any correspondence notifying me of these delays. The first correspondence I received was the beginning of November 2020. I immediately call Mr. Charles Reeves to resolve this situation. I am currently up-to-date with my filings and will not fall behind again.

Also, I am in the process of making arrangements to pay my loan and closeout my account. I will submit my last report well ahead of the deadline.

For the reasons above, I am formally requesting a waiver of all late fees.

Sincerely,

Ryan J. Huval
